

Good Will Tea House, located on the east side of the Arnold Highway at Good Will Farm

When in Maine

Visit Good Will Farm

"Where Character is Raised"

Where it is

A unique spot on the banks of the Kennebec River, in the heart of the Pine Tree State. Directly on the International Highway, Route 201 - the Arnold Trail between Quebec and the sea. 27 miles up river from Augusta, 60 miles from Bangor, 59 miles from Lewiston and 85 miles from Portland.

What it is

An endowed philanthropic and educational institution providing homes and schools on 1600 acres of farm land, for 155 deserving boys and 60 deserving girls. $400. a year gives another boy or girl this chance in life. Family life in cottages. Non-sectarian. Foursquare in purpose - physical, social, intellectual and religious development. Founded in 1889 by G.W. Hinckley.

Call

at the Prescott Memorial Administration Building (with the white cupola) and let a Good Will boy show you the:

Prescott Memorial Building - Moody Memorial Chapel
Carnegie Library - Moody School Building
Bates Museum - A Cottage Home
Roosevelt Tablet - Seton Fire Place - Sharp Ledge
Murray Tablets - Soldiers and Sailors Arch and see at work and play the happy, healthy Good Will boys and girls.

Refresh your body at the charming, restful Good Will Tea House shown above.

Refresh your soul with a glimpse of worth while life at Good Will Farm.

An illustrated booklet more fully describing the work of Good Will sent by request to Good Will Home Association, Hinckley, Maine

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by
L.C. Bates Museum / Good Will-Hinckley Homes
Date: ca. 1925
Description: Good Will Farm promotion flyer