

Wednesday morning

Dear Brother, I found father very ill yesterday though they thought it one of his comfortable days. Last night was a very distressing one to him, & Hannah and Mother hardly expected he would live till morning. Just now he is more quiet, but if his spasmodic affections keep returning at intervals, it would seem impossible for him to survive much longer. He would be very glad to see you if as soon as you can leave home without too much inconvenience.

I am &c George

Wednesday morning

Dear Brother,

I found father very ill yesterday though they thought it one of his comfortable days. Last night was a very distressing one to him, & Hannah and Mother hardly expected he would live till morning. Just now he is more quiet, but if his spasmodic affections keep returning at intervals, it would seem impossible for him to survive much longer. He would be very glad to see you if as soon as you can come home without too much inconvenience.

I am &c George

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society
MMN #28335
Date: Nov. 19, 1829
Description: G.W. Pierce note about father's illness