

Augusta Oct. 3. 1833.

Friend Pierce - I read your communication a few days since, & have endeavored to obtain lodgings for yourself & wife next winter, but I regret to say that there is not at present a decent private boarding house in the whole city of Augusta.

I regret this the more inasmuch, as your wife intends to spend the winter with us. It would afford my wife & self great pleasure to have you become inmates of our family while you remain in town, were it not for particular domestic reasons, which you will undoubtedly understand being a married man -

I could even now procure you a situation, but the distance would be a serious objection, it being half a mile -

Augusta Oct. 3. 1833

Friend Pierce - I read your communication a few days since & have endeavored to obtain lodging for yourself & wife next winter, but I regret to say that there is not at present a decent private boarding house in the whole city of Augusta. I regret this the more in as much as your wife intends to spend the winter with us. It would afford my wife & self great pleasure to have you become inmates of our family while you remain in town, were it not for particular domestic reasons, which you will undoubtedly understand being a married man - I could even now procure you a situation, but the distance would be a serious objection, it being half a mile -

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society
MMN #28349
Date: Oct. 3, 1833
Description: Frank Gage to G.W. Pierce on Augusta accommodations

I think however there will be houses offered before the legislature meet, should this be the case I will give you early information, & will use my utmost exertions to find one that will be satisfactory

Yours truly Frank Gage

GW Pierce Esq

I think however there will be
houses offered before the legislature
meet & should this be the case I will give you early information & will
use my utmost exertions to find
one that will be satisfactory.

Yours truly Frank Gage

GW Pierce Esq