My Dear Sir
As you live on roast turkies I fear you have forgotton ~~at~~ our naked situation — Have you made any enquiry for our cloth at Berwick If you have not I pray you will without delay — send word to Mr May all the I have shut up one half of my family into a close room for the want of clothes — Unless I hear from him that the cloth is ready I shall shut up the other part of my family and Sir, I shall send to Mrs Clark and see if she wishes to send me a part of her family to be confined with mine — If we cannot have our cloth within a few days I hope you <sup>will</sup> procure a passage of a resolve of the Legislature in our favor to bring us all to Portland and there to partake of the bounties of the State

My Dear Sir

As you live on roast
turkies I fear you have forgotton [crossed out]
our naked situation — Have you made any inquiry for our cloth at Berwick
delay – send word to Mr Mayall that
our cloth within a few day I hope will you ^ secure a passage of a resolve of

to partake of the bounties of the State

Description: Cyrus Hamlin letter

I do not see Sir, as I can write any more as my back is freezing and my fingers are benumbed with the cold I must (altho almost frozen) pray that you take our distressing situation into your sober consideration, and do all for us that you can and as in duty bound will ever
pray — C. Hamlin

P.S. I am in hopes that Dr. Chandler is on the whole a little better. — altho his wife says that he is yet unable grant her any assistance in her wanting situation — but I am in hopes he will by and by

I must (although almost frozen) pray
do all for me that you can and

PS. I am in .... that Dr Chandler is on the whole a little better — although
grant her any .... in her
wanting situation — but I am
