Description: Handbill for Gould's Emporium, Biddeford

Gould's Emporium, SEPTEMBER, 1869.

To the Ladies of Biddeford, Saco & vicinity,

We take pleasure in announcing, that, having secured the valuable services of

MISS ELLEN M. HYDE,

To take the lead in the Dress Making Department of our Establishment, we are now prepared to give the requisite attention to that branch of our business. All orders promptly and carefully attended to, and entire satisfaction guaranteed.

In our READING ROOM FOR LADIES will be found regularly,
ALL OF THE FASHIONABLE PUBLICATIONS of the Country.

Ladies will find this a very pleasant resort for their leisure moments, as every arrangement has been made for their convenience and comfort.

Open day and Evening, and free to all.

Ladies need not hesitate to visit our Reading Room, when they do not want to purchase our goods, as they are welcome at all times.

IN OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

We are constantly receiving New and Choice Goods from Boston and New York. We have just received some very handsome Patterns of Fall Styles, to which we particularly call your attention. All of our Goods having been purchased at Cash Prices, we can sell at a very low figure. Please give us a call.

219 Shaw's Block, Main St., Biddeford, Me.
MISS LUCIE E. GOULD. MISS NELLIE P. GOULD.
