The Pines of Maine

O pines of Maine, dear pines of Maine!
With thy proud heads uplifted high,
Telling thy tales of days long dead,
To all the woods and streams and sky.

O pines upon Maine's thousand hills!
Whose perfume scents the restless air,
Whose voices soothe our sleep at night,
Sweet as a softly-murmured prayer.

Thou art high-born, O pines of Maine!
All nature helped to give thee birth,
Thy father was the sun and wind,
Thy mother, the dark soil of earth.

Then toss thy dark-plumed heads on high,
From northern hill unto the sea.
And mingle with thy songs of old,
The songs of wonderous days to be.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Merrill.
