

To the Suffrage Associations ^[1917?]
By the action of the Legislature the voters of Maine will decide at the polls on Sep. 10th next, whether the women of the State shall be given the ballot.
This vote cannot be avoided or postponed. It must be taken.
Following the usual and natural Custom, Suffragists and anti-suffragists alike, would conduct a most public and strenuous Campaign to secure the vote, advocating their respective ideas by every possible expedient.
We now find our nation at war.
Under its grim shadow all other questions change their perspective. To conduct any Campaign which shall divert time, energy and money from channels which the National Emergency creates, seems untimely.
Will you, then, in all your organizations agree with us, to let this woman suffrage question go up to the

To the Suffrage Associations

By the action of the Legislature
the voters of Maine will decide at
the polls on Sep. 10th next, whether
the women of the State shall be given
the ballot.

This vote cannot be avoided or postponed. It must be taken.

Following the Usual and Natural
Custom, Suffragists and Anti-Suffragists
alike, would conduct a most public
and strenuous campaign to secure the
vote, advocating their respective ideas
by every possible expedient.

We now find our nation at war.
Under its grim shadow all other questions
change their perspective. To conduct,
any campaign which shall divert time,
energy and money from channels which
the National Emergency creates, seems
untimely.

Will you, then, in all your
organizations agree with us, to let this Women Suffrage question go up to the

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society (Coll. 56, Box 1/7)
MMN #31257

Date: 1917

Description: Letter to suffrage organizations polls without any public campaign?

Will you, as Suffragists, sign an agreement with us as Anti-Suffragists, so drawn as to exclude all public meetings and public speaking, all distribution of literature, all public advertising by newspapers, placards or posters, close all headquarters, stop the activities of all your organizers and workers, refrain from all work at the polls and accept the uninfluenced vote?
We propose this as a patriotic emergency measure.

polls without any public campaign?
Will you as Suffragists, sign an
agreement with us as Anti-Suffragists,
so drawn as to exclude all public
meetings and public speaking, all
distribution of literature, all public
advertising by newspapers, placards or
posters, close all headquarters, stop the
activities of all your organizers and
workers, refrain from all work at
the polls and accept the uninfluenced
vote?

We propose this as a patriotic
emergency measure.