

[DECEMBER 1915]
There has not been much to report from this committee until the Grange Convention in this city on the 21st of December.
On that day Mrs. Bird of our Exec. Committee very kindly offered to get some of our literature to the Grangers. This she did, distributing our pamphlets in the lobby. In all probably six or seven hundred were given. We had sent to the Pennsylvania Ass. for some of their publications but they did not arrive until a week later. We now

There has not been much to report from this committee until the Grange Convention in this city on the 21st of December. On that day Mrs. Bird of our Exec. Committee very kindly offered to get some of our literature to the Grangers. This she did, distributing our pamphlets in the lobby. In all probably six or seven hundred were given. We had sent to the Pennsylvania Ass. for some of their publications but they did not arrive until a week later. We now

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society (Coll. 56, Box 1/2)
MMN #31304

Date: ca. 1915
Description: Anti suffrage report on activities

Have two thousand of these leaflets which give an excellent idea of the present condition of Suffrage in the different States. The article is entitled "Defeats and Failures of Woman Suffrage".
Any one in our organization wishing any for distribution may obtain them of the Committee.
These and a thousand or so of our own pamphlets are practically all the literature now on hand.
Margaret Hale
Chairman Comm. on Literature.

have two thousand of these
leaflets which give an excellent idea of the present
condition of Suffrage in the different States. The article is entitled "Defeats and Failures of Woman Suffrage."
Any one in our organization
wishing any for distribution can obtain them of the Committee.
These and a thousand or
so of our own pamphlets are
practically all the literature
now on hand.

Margaret Hale
Chairman Comm. on Literature.