

Franklin D. Roosevelt
President of the United States of America,
To all who shall see these presents, Greeting:

Know ye, that reposing special trust and confidence in the Integrity and Ability of Sumner T. Pike, of Maine, I have nominated and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him a Member of the Securities and Exchange Commission for the term expiring June 5, 1948, and do authorize and empower him to execute and fulfil the duties of that Office according to law, and to have and to hold the said Office, with all the powers, privileges, and emoluments thereunto of right appertaining, unto him the said Sumner T. Pike, subject to the conditions prescribed by law.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundredth and sixty-seventh.

By the President
