Description: Marshall Phillips letter from Fredricksburg we crossed the River the 12, before daylight about half a mile below the city they was fighting all day the 12, mostly with bateries our regt was supporting batries the Rebel army has a strong position on a long range of hills about a mile from the river they have a number of forts in our sight and appear to be well fortified they faught all day the 13 and faught hard with artillery and musketry we gained on the left about half amiled as near as we can learn we met with heavy loss in our infantry in the front we were apart of the time deployed and a part of the time supporting Batteries there was one of our brigade killed and three or four wounded we have been favored so far there was but little fighting Sunday the 14 there has been but little fighting today compared with Saturday although there has been fighting all

Diana I must cut my letter short I hope when Zeb gets home if he stops with you as he thought he should when he left, he will assist you and make it easier for you I should liked have with him terrible well but could not Diannah I am terrible to get home as any ious

I dare say my health is as good as common but not so good as I wish it was I received a letter from Roxa and one from Mother the other day was very happy to receive them Diana it is very inconvenient for me to write I have to sit down on the ground with the wind blowing around me with my equipments on me and my gun by my side you must not let Mother see nor here any thing about this letter by my request keep up your old motto hope for the best to my Dear
