Description: Marshall Phillips letter from West Point, Va.

West Point Wesnesday May 7th / 62

Dear Wife I will pencil a few lines to you this morning to inform you where I am and that I am well we arived at West Point last night about five oclock with a number of gun boats and a large fle^t of transports it is quite is pretty place here or would be if it was not for the rebelion that pervales here it looks bad to me on that account Franklins Division is the first Division that has landed here we went in to camp last night we expect Porters Division here to day the gun boats come up a head of the transports when they come to anchor they took their glasses and looked around they saw what they judged to be about a thousand secesh in the Calvelry in the woods about a mild distant soon three or four of them made their appearance in the open field they threw three shell at them in quick succession they left in double quick time our Division throad out a heavy picket in different posisions in to the woods they had some scurmishing in the night there was two of our men shot and four or five wounded I have just seen a sargent of the New York 27 that was shot dead through the breast thurs Thursday May 8th I a was stoped writing yesterday morning by an order for our Regt to form a line of battle as quick as possible the fire of the scurmishers increaseing very fast the division formed and marched to the a woods I have not time to write the partickulars at this time but I expected you would hear of the scurmish fight here and would feel anxious

but will surfise by say that we а

by saying we had rather ^ hard scurmish fight in a dence thicket in the woods I have not heard from you since I left yorktown the Auburn boys are all as well as common I hav not time to write any more my respects to all M S Phillips
