

Virginia May 11th 1864
Dear wife
I will write a few lines to you to day hoping that I may get a chance to send it ~~now~~ ~~that~~ knowing that you must feel very anxious about me but Diana I am alive yet and am not wounded it is 9 days to day since we crossed the rappadan we have had eight day of continued fighting we our regt have not hadd a very desprit fight untill yesterday three regt of our brigade was orderd to charge on a rifle pit and some batteries and Dear wife I did not expect to ever come out a live but by the blefrings of god I ~~am~~ am yet alive I must stop we are orderd to march
Dear wife good by

Virginia May 11th 1864

Dear wife

I will write a few lines to you
to day hoping that I may get
a chance to send it ~~now~~ ~~that~~
knowing that you must feel
very anxious about me but Diana
I am alive yet and am not wounded
it is 9 days to day since we crossed
the rappadan we have had eight day
of continued fighting we our regt.
have not hadd a very desprit fight
untill yesterday three regt of our
brigade was orderd to charge on
a rifle pit and some batteries
and Dear wife I did not expect to
ever come out a live but by the blessings of god I ~~did~~ am yet alive
I must stop we are orderd to march
Dear wife good by

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society (Coll. S-166, Misc. Box 6/7)
MMN #35833

Date: May 11 - 13, 1864

Description: Marshall Phillips on Spotsylvania

May the 13 we had the most survier musketry fight yesterday that ~~durin~~ we have had during the nine days of
continued fighting
Mr. Edmunds was wounded
o the tenth when we charged
the rebel rifle pits we lost a hundred men killed and wounded in the charg we have less than a hundred men now in the regt Dear wife it looks hard our time being so near out
but may god spare my life
Joseph Edmunds left arm I has ben amputated near the sholder he appears to be doing well I shall write to his wife as soon as I can I him that I would
I have not time to write
more we are orderd to march
M S Phillips

May the 13 we had the
most survier musketry fight
yesterday that ~~durin~~ we have
had during the nine days of
continued fighting
Mr. Edmunds was was wounded
o the tenth when we charged
the rebel rifle pits we lost
a hundred men killed and
wounded in the charg we have
less than a hundred men now
in the regt Dear wife it looks
hard our time being so near out
but may god spare my life
Joseph Edmunds left arm

e
has be^n amputated near the
sholder he appears to be doing
well I shall write to his
wife as soon as I can I

him that, I would
I have not time to write
more we are orderd to march

M S Phillips