Dear wife

I received a letter and a paper last night was glad to hear that you wer all well & my health is good as usual & we are in camp where we have been all winter I have nothing new to write about Diana I dread this spring campai proably because my time is so will be so near out write about your pay from the state you will hav to get some one to plough and and plant the gardin I hope to see you all next June I want you to keep your extry Journal of the laws of the State when you get it dont let any one see this letter with love
