Description: Josiah Pierce on Longfellow bust letters was addressed to Mr. Lowell, to him, with a note from myself asking him to keep us if he can, and at any rate not to help Mr. Houghton the publisher, <sup>for Cambridge</sup> ^ who has so many advantages, through literary acquaintances, that my simple personal application for these letters will need the help of an official request for them from the Society, as I have suggested in my letter to Aunt Anne, after the measures I took in accordance with her telegram —

We have had the pleasure of making Miss Bessie Hill's acquaintance, and find her a charming, sensible & good girl, and are very sorry we lost so much time while she was in London before seeing her - and also that she is going away so soon -

I am glad to learn John & Daisy are back again, and shall write to John very soon - and thank you very much for the interest you take in Joe, who deserves great reproof for not writing letters more frequently, like all of us — I wrote Cousin Charles Freeman some months ago, asking him to complete & publish at my expense, the history of Baldwin, begun by father.

If you can stir him up to this, pray do so — Mr. Cyrus Woodman has written me an earnest letter about it — and might help Charles in the work — We are all well, and with love to you all, I am your affectionate brother Josiah Pierce.
