

31 Craven Hill Gardens,
London. W. 1st Nov^r. 1886.

My dear Aunt,

Your brother Henry's Golden Legend, with Sir Arthur Sullivan's music, has been so much applauded at the Leeds Festival lately, and is so generally welcomed here, that I venture to send you a copy of the Cantata, though it seems likely that you may already possess it -

31 Craven Hill Gardens.
London. W. 1st. Nov^r. 1886.

My dear Aunt,

Your brother Henry's Golden
Legend with Sir Arthur Sullivan's
music, has been so much applauded
at the Leeds Festival lately, and is
so generally welcomed here, that
I venture to send you a copy of
the Cantata, though it seems likely
that you may already possess it -

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by an individual through Maine Historical Society

MMN #36243

Date: Nov. 1, 1886

Description: Longfellow poem set to music

I should think the many lovers of music must already have brought it to Portland, and that very likely Miss Mary carried a copy home with her: but pray accept the one I send as a little token of my constant & affectionate remembrance.

We were sorry not to have seen more of your charming nieces last summer - It happened that we were absent from London most of the time while they were here: but they most kindly came to see us and

I should think the many lovers of
music must already have brought it to Portland, and that they very likely Miss Mary carried a copy home
with her; but pray accept the one
I send as a little token of my
constant & affectionate remembrance.

We were sorry not to have seen
more of your charming nieces last
summer - It happened that we
were absent from London most of the
time while they were here: but they
most kindly came to see us and

I need not tell you we liked them very much and regretted that time and opportunity had not been given us to prove it better -

I suppose they sailed for America when they intended (about Oct. 20th), and hope they arrived safely and comfortably, although the weather on this side the Atlantic was then very stormy.

A report has reached me that an account of your old home by Hattie Bradley (perhaps with an illustration by

I need not tell you we liked them
very much and regretted that time
and opportunity had not been given
us to prove it better -

I suppose they sailed for America
when they intended (about Oct. 20th)
and hope they arrived safely and
comfortably, although the weather on this side of the Atlantic was then very stormy.

A report has reached me that an
account of your old home by Hattie Bradley (perhaps with an illustration by

my son) may soon be published in an American journal - If you should have a copy to spare for me, it would give me much pleasure to receive it.

I have heard nothing directly from Hattie since she came to Europe -

We are settling down for our London winter of fogs, and I hope shall get through comfortably - My wife cannot bear much fatigue, but is otherwise well as is little Dorothy, and with love to you from us all, & kind regards to old friends, I remain affectionately yours, Josiah Pierce.

my son) may soon be published in an
American journal - If you should have
a copy to spare for me, it would
give me much pleasure to receive it.

I have heard nothing directly from
Hattie since she came to Europe -
We are settling down for our London
winter of fogs, and I hope shall get
through comfortably - My wife cannot
bear much fatigue, but is otherwise well as is little Dorothy, and with much love to you from us all, & kind regards to old
friends, I remain affectionately yours,
Josiah Pierce.