

Plattsburgh Sept 21 1814

Dear Sir

I have the honor to inform you that we have had the pleasure of defeating the the whole British force of 14,000 men commanded by Governor Genl Prevost. his men were men who had conquered France, Spain, Portugal, and many other parts of the globe, and were defeated by a small regular force of about 1500 men and about 3000 Militia, they made there disgracefull retreat under the darkness of the night, but as soon as their retreat was known, the Light Corps and Volunteers went in there persuit but they the British made such a faist march by heaving away their Baggage or part of it, and the continual fall of rain prevented their further persuit. the enemy left at there several Batteries a large quantity of Balls, bombs, ammuni-tion, and shovels, spades and all kinds of im-plements of war, which fell into our hands. - at the day of the action, I had the honor of comm-nding the Guard stationed at to defend the Villedge Bridge, from the enemies crossing, and were by me thro time repulsed with considerable loss on there part, I had my feather shot

Plattsburgh, Sep^t 21 -1814

Dear Sir

I have the honor to inform you
the
that we have had ^ the pleaur of defeating the the whole British force of 14,000 men commanded by Governor Gen^l Prevost. his men ware men who had conquered france, Spain, Portugal and many other parts of the globe. and ware defeated by a sm-all regular force of about 1500 men and about 3000 Melitia. they made there disgracefull retreat as under the darkness of the night, but as soon ^at their retreat was known, the Light-Corps and Volunteers went in there persuit but ~~they~~ the Brittish ma-de such a faest march by heaving away their Baggage or part of it and the continual fall of ~~rain~~ rain prevented their further persuit. the enemy left at there several ~~pare~~ Batte-ries a large quantity of Balls, bombs, ammuni-tion, and shovels, spades and all kinds of im-pliments of war, which fell into our hands as at the day of the Action. I had the honor of comm-nding the Guard stationed as to defend the Villedge Bride, four the enemies crossing, and ware by me thru time repulsed with considerable loss on there part. I had my feather shot

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society
(Coll. 108, Box 1, fl. 13)
MMN #36517

Date: Sept. 21, 1814
Description: Capt. Densmore on Plattsburgh victory

