

To thee, O Portland High. Sheet Music 36 Words by Ada L. Davis, '91. Music by Latham True, '91.

To thee, O Portland High, a song we raise; To thee as loving children cling. From loyal hearts our voices sound thy praise, Our eager hands a garland bring.

To thee, O Portland High, a song we raise,
To thee as loving children cling;
From loyal hearts our voices sound thy praise,
Our eager hands a garland bring.

Too swiftly run the joyous springtide years,
As in a garden-shelter sweet;
Within thy walls we know not life's dark fears,
Protected from the world's fierce heat;

But soon we pass, when June's sweet roses blow,
Beyond thy gracious portals wide;
Before us Truth with flaming torch shall go;
Fond Memory shall walk beside.

School of our youth, to thee a song we raise,
To thee as loving children cling;
From loyal hearts our voices sound thy praise,
Our eager hands a tribute bring.
