

Camp of the 1st Me Vet Vols.
March 26
1865

Sister Dora.

I recd your letter of 20th yesterday and was very glad to hear that you were well. My health is very good indeed and am getting along finely. All I can think to write this time is about a little fight which occurred here yesterday - which may perhaps interest you a little.
In the first place the Rebels opened the attack on the right in front of the 9th Corps and drove our men back - then took two forts and held them some time finally they closed in on them and took them all prisoners twenty one hundred I believe. After that Gen Grant opened along the whole line our Corps was

Camp of the 1st Me Vet Vols
March 26
1865

Sister Dora.

I recd your letter of
20th yesterday and was very glad to hear that you were well. My health
is very good indeed and am getting
along finely. All I can think to
write this time is about a little fight
which occurred here yesterday - which
may perhaps interest you a little.
In the first place the Rebels opened the
attack on the right in front of the 9th Corps and drove our men back - then took
two forts and held them some time finally
they closed in on them and took them
all prisoners twenty one hundred I believe. After that Gen Grant opened
along the whole line our Corps was

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society (Coll. 371, Box 1/5)
MMN #54528

Date: March 26, 1865

Description: William B. Adams description of fight engaged heavily our Regt. lost in killed and wounded (73) seventy three among the wounded was Capt Goldthwait of the old 5th Maine and one of those fellows that was at home with me last winter Perkins of Oxford. our Orderly Sergt was also wounded. I might mention others but you would not know them Lieut Dwinal of McFalls - you may have heard of him - Then on the left of our Corps the 20th was engaged but have not heard the result the Regt that Hugh was in was engaged I shall go over and see him tomorrow if nothing happens. on our Front we drove in their pickets in and Our Pickett line is beyond where theirs was and that is nearly as strong as our line of works I think on the whole it was just to try them to see if they had sent any troops to oppose Sherman About 12 last night the troops all came

engaged heavily our Regt. lost in killed
and wounded (73) seventy three. among
the wounded was Capt Goldthwait of
the old 5th Maine and one of those fellows
that was at home with me last winter Perkins of Oxford our Orderly Sergt was
also wounded I might mention others
but you would not know them Lieut
Dwinal of McFalls - you may have heard
of him - Then on the left of our Corps
the 20th was engaged but have not heard
the result the Regt that Hugh was in
was engaged I shall go over and see
him tomorrow if nothing happens. on
our Front we drove in their pickets in
and Our Pickett line is beyond where
theirs was and that is nearly as strong
as our line of works I think on the
whole it was just to try them to see if they had sent any troops to oppose Sherman
About 12 last night the troops all came back to their quarters and are now in camp the same as before.

I don't know what more I can write.

About that money I let Father have when I came out last winter I don't ask anything for that until he gets able if he ever does.

Write soon as you can conveniently can and I will do the best I can -

From your Brother

William B Adams
Co B. 1st Maine Vols

I forgot to ask who this Com Logan is &c.

back to their quarters and are now in
camp the same as before.

I don't know what more I can write
About that money I let Father have
When I came out last winter I don't
ask anything for that until he gets
able if he ever does

Write soon as you can conveniently can
and I will do the best I can -

From your Brother

William B Adams
Co B. 1st Maine Vols

[very faint]