

Washington Sep 14 1862

My Dear father

No doubt you
are very anxious to hear from me and so I thought that I would pen you
a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope that this will find you the same.
another sabbath finds
me in camp but how different is that day here to what it was in Augusta firing guns, and pistols. the cars coming and going the shrill
whistle of the engine

Washington Sep 14 1862

My Dear father

No doubt you
are very anxious to hear
from me and so I thought
that I would pen you
a few lines to let
you know that I am
well and hope that this
will find you the same.
another sabbath finds
me in camp but how
different is that day here
to what it was in
Augusta firing guns, and
pistols. the cars coming
and going the shrill
whistle of the engine

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society (Coll. 184, Box 1/1)
MMN #55493

Date: September 13, 1862

Description: Pvt. John Sheahan on arrival in Washington

all make one think
that he is in a heathen land rather than in one
that calls itself christian you can form no idea of the state of things
here nor do you even
get the right account of
the battles but here we do
for there is men coming from the battle field every day to Washington churches
and in fact every building that can be procured is turned into a hospital you dont hear that in the papers nor have you yet heard of the 500 sick and wounded that had to sleep in the dirty streets of Baltimore
the night we came through that city. we arrived in Baltimore about two o'clock

all make one think
that he is in a heathen
land rather than in one
that calls itself Christian
you can form no idea
of the state of things
here nor do you even
get the right account of
the battles but here we do
for there is men coming
from the battle field every
day to Washington churches
and in fact every building
that can be procured is
turned into a hospital you
dont hear that in the
papers nor have you yet
heard of the 500 sick and
wounded that had to sleep
in the dirty streets of Baltimore
the night we came through
that city. we arrived in
Baltimore about two o'clock

at night we was then
marched about two miles
and got some grub then marched into the street and there we lay till morning I slept nearly an hour we took the cars at 11 in the fore-noon and arrived in Washington at about 5 we had on 24 cars all loaded with soldiers and
for that reason the cars went very slow. We are waiting for horses and some
thinks that we want get them for nearly three months let me know if you get the money as soon as you get this dont wait a day for I want to know

direct John P Sheahan 1st Maine Cavalry
Company K
Washington DC

at night we was then
marched about two miles
and got some grub then
marched into the street and
there we lay till morning I
slept nearly an hour we took
the cars at 11 in the fore-noon
and arrived in Washington
at about 5 we had on 24 cars
all loaded with soldiers and
for that reason the cars
went very slow. We are
waiting for horses and some
thinks that we want get
them for nearly three
months let me know if
you get the money as
soon as you get this
dont wait a day for I
want to know

direct John P Sheahan
1st Maine Cavalry
Company K
Washington DC

dont let any one see
this it is written so poorly

Send me a dollar bill
and 50 cents worth of stamps I have had to buy a good many things.
I lent a dollar this morning to a fellow to get something for a sick boy that belongs to our Company

dont let anyone see
this it is written so poorly

Send me a dollar bill
and 50 cents worth of
stamps I have had to
buy a good many things.
I lent a dollar this morning to a fellow to get something for a sick boy that belongs to our
Company