Description: Soldier's letter on clothing payment, verry much. it has been extreemly cold since my return.

i presume you have heard from our election. we have elected Mr Cony by at least 20.000- majority. we have not got full returns yet.

i saw the gov election day but my interview with him was rather brief. i cited him to youre position & the genral feelings of the soldiers towards
you. & likewise gave my opinion as i was verry favourably impressed with youre appearance & ambition. he told me that he wold remember you. & if elected do every thing in his power for you.

i have no news of importance to write you. all quiet since the election with few excettions. Coperheads dull & Declining —

Very Respectfully yours
George Cony
