Description: John Sheahan on skirmish with Rebels reason why I did not get your letter before this

I would give a good deal if you could come out here to see this place where we are encamped such large farms and everything so nice if I had the least idea of ever buying a farm I should choose one here in preference to any other place I have been in the state, it is a very fine country down near Richmond but then it is so far away from the north that I rather think I should as lives live here and a little rather if any thing for here it is only a short distance to the city of Washington

and of course it would be a great advantage to have a farm near such a city where a ready market could be found for anything that one should choose to raise, we are having very pleasant weather indeed just now and every thing looks gay, clover is up to the horse's belly in the fields our horses look finely now for they get plenty to eat, I have got the best horse in the Co so most all the boys say he is a bully looking fellow and he will jump over three rails as quick a flash for that reason
he makes a good cavalry

are on the march our horses have a great deal of jumping to do - that is in the most of our marches so if a fellow has a good jumper he is all right, I should like to come home about this time and
see some of the folks in Dennysville, it is now nearly a year since I parted with you at the hotel at home and what an eventful year it has been to me I have escaped the bullets of the enemy and the many diseases that are found lurking in every camp I cannot say that I regret the step that I took when I enlisted, my regret is that I did not do it sooner I have firm faith that our army will yet be victorious and that William and I will both return home with the blessed assurance
an honorable peace
