

I guess Sarah White had not heard from home when she wrote for I had written to Noble and got an answer from him.

Don't forget the postage stamps

Anna:

I received yours of 8th inst a week ago but as I had written a few days before to mother did not answer yours as soon as otherwise Things with us generally as usual though there has been some change in the organization of this division I understand although no difference has occurred to us; we have been put into a brigade with two other regts under command of Col. Patrick of 5th N.Y. Cavalry, — we have not been brigaded before it seems — only joined to the division. We have been in camp a week now since being on piquet — something new for us but the talk about camp is that we go for ten days when we go again I expect it will be to a new

Description: Sgt. Horace White letter concerning Confederate soldiers place as we were relieved by a new regiment when we were last.

Our boys had quite a sociable time with the rebs the last time we were out - They could easily talk across the river and some of them came over in a boat - one of them brought a letter which he wanted our boys to mail for him to his sister in Mass. - he claimed to be a Massachusetts man - said he was in North Carolina when the war broke out and volunteered to avoid being drafted. The N. C. boys are very candid and courteous in their conversation with our boys - They are vastly different from Virginians in this respect; a Virginian can't talk five minutes without throwing out some sarcastic insinuations of Bull Run, Cedar Mountain or something of the sort. The North Carolinians are heartily sick of the war but think we can never beat them by fighting but may starve them out. Our boys had some traffic with them and one of them got some postage-stamps one of which I will enclose.

The weather the last week or two has been rather more winterish than anything before this winter.

We have had two snow-storms and one rain-storm in the last week.

The first snow last Tuesday was damp and did not last beside it rained the next day. Last Saturday night it commenced snowing and continued all day Sunday but

The ground was wet so it did not accumulate fast - there is now about 6 inches of snow on the ground but the sun is shining clear and warm.
This last has been the most severe storm of the season.

I was quite surprised at seeing Frank out here — he enlisted for the New England Cavalry, a regiment to be raised in the N.E. states for Gen Banks' expedition. They only got 12 in Maine and they were allowed to go into the 1st Me heavy Artillery or Cavalry as they chose. Albert Hanes came back to the company yesterday — he was left in Frederick when we left sick with Typhoid fever I think has been in Washington for some weeks past. He looks rugged now.

The 2th are about a mile and half from here. I have not been over there yet — saw Jim Williams here and he said he was the only one from Houlton — the rest of the H. boys were left somewhere along the rout. Capt Freese was in Bangor recruiting. — There is likely to be quite a change of Commissioned Officers in our company soon — at least there is such talk but I can't tell now what it will be
