

Hampden Oct 12th 1864

To Benjamin H Hinds Esqr

Dear Sir, As the military order in relation to disinterments has expired by limitation We think of trying to recover the remains of Charley. He was buried at the new National Cemetery at Arlington Va in Grave 9. Rainge 10 Block 1 and Section B I had some talk with Messrs. Scolly and Sands. No 334 Pens. Avauue Washington D. C. Will you call on them and ascertain what will be the expense and how his remains will be forwarded and the best mode of remitting the funds. Mr Scolly said something about a coffin that woudt come cheaper than Metalick and be equally as good. Please inform me by return mail. Name Charles W. Allen a private in Co C 1 Maine heavy Artillery. died in Lincoln Hospital July 21st 1864

Your Obt Servant
David Brown

Hampden Oct 12th 1864
To Benjamin H. Hinds Esqr

Dear Sir. As the military order in relation to disinterments has expired by limitation We think of trying to recover the remains of Charley. He was buried at the new National Cemetery at Arlington Va in Grave 9. Rainge 10 block 1 and Section B I had some talk with Majors Scolly and Sands. No 334 Pen^s. Avauue Washington D. C. Will you call on them and ascertain what will be the expense and how his remains will be forwarded and the best mode of remitting the funds. Mr Scolly said something about a coffin that wont come cheaper than Metalick and be equally as good. Please inform me by return mail. Name Charles W. Allen a private in Co C 1 Maine heavy Artillery. died in Lincoln Hospital July 21st 1864

Your Obt Servant
David Brown

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

MMN # 65103

Date: October 12, 1864

Description: David Brown regarding the recovery and burial details of a soldier's remains.