

Poughkeepsie → May 4, 1914 + Postmark,

Dear old chum —

Bless your heart! — you don't forget me, do you? — A May Basket! Why
it made me a little girl again.

It got here in wonderfully good condition
[crossed out] nothing smashed — nothing spilled. And it perfectly dear so sweet to look on in —

I love you a keg-ful, Corinne's grander, and when I get home will talk it over —
member me to your folks —

Poughkeepsie – May 4, 1914 (Post mark)

Dear old chum —

Bless your heart! — You
don't forget me, do you? — A May Basket! Why
it made me a little girl again.

It got here in wonderfully good condition
[crossed out] nothing smashed — nothing spilled. And it perfectly dear so sweet outside as in —
I love you a keg-ful, Corinne of Camden, and when I get home we'll talk as ever.

Member me to your folks.
