

1/25
Hon George F. Shepley
Sir
If your business down South is to forbid the expression of a desire for peace you had much better take old "Picayune Ambler"
and return North, for here, among the democracy of Maine you will find a grand field for the exercise of your patriotic endeavours.
O! George, George, for shame
for shame.
One who knows you well
Bangor November 30. 1862

Hon George F. Shepley

Sir

If your business down South is to forbid the expression of a desire for peace you had
much better take old "Picayune Ambler"
and return North, for here, among
the democracy of Maine you will find
a grand field for the exercise of your patriotic endeavors.

O! George, George, for shame
for shame.

One who knows you well

Bangor November 30. 1862

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

MMN # 74528

Date: November 30, 1862

Description: An anonymous correspondent wrote to George Shepley expressing "shame" that Union officials in Louisiana stopped publication of a newspaper there, which the writer said supported "peace."