

Moscow
Feb. 5, 1916

[Russian]

Dear Uncle Charles: This is one of Moscov nine railroad stations and though very dirty, it is very picturesque. We live about a ten minutes walk away from it. In these days of congestion & difficulties of transportation it is always crowded full & is to me one of the most interesting places in the city as one sees so many curious types of people there! Much love to you all -

appa [?]

Annah

Mr. C.W.S. Cobbs

4415 W. Morgan St.

St. Louis Mo.

U.S. America

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

MMN # 75568

Date: Febraury 5, 1916

Description: Postcard from Annah Butler Richardson to her uncle Charles W. S. Cobb, in Missouri, discussing train transportation in Moscow Russia.