

Augusta, Me. Oct. 23, 1863.

Gen. Shepley,
Sir,

The bearer, Rev. W^m A.P. Dillingham, of Waterville, has important property interests in New Orleans & up the Mississippi River, which he goes out to look after & try & protect.

Mr. Dillingham is one of our most substantial citizens, and a friend & client of mine, - and any facilities you can give him in the prosecution of his business, I shall regard as a personal favor -

Very Respectfully Yours,
A. Libbey.

Augusta, Me. Oct. 23, 1863.
Gen. Shepley,
Sir,
The bearer Rev. W^m A.P. Dillingham, of Waterville, has important property interests in New Orleans & up the Mississippi River, which he goes out to look after & try & protect.

Mr. Dillingham is one of our most substantial citizens, and a friend and client of mine, - and any facilities you can give him in the prosecution of his business, I shall regard as a personal favor -

Very Respectfully Yours,
A. Libbey.

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society

MMN # 76131

Date: October 23, 1863

Description: A. Libbey wrote to George F. Shepley to introduce the Rev. William A.P. Dillingham of Sidney.