Dear Sister

To day is Sunday
I came here yesterday from Brooksville and set up in this place. Surry is pleasantly situated on the bay and has a fine harbour they carry on ship building here to considerable extent likewise there is a great business here in milling there is 10 or 12 saw mills grist mills and fulling mills, this vilage is about as large as Wiscasett and is 7 miles from Elsworth, which is the Shire town of this county. I operate here in Capt James Flaggs House I suppose you are teaching now yours is quite a responsible birth training the infant mind to knowledge in youth the tree of knowledge is planted and depends on the instructor how it is nurtured if the tree is cultured

Description: Letter to Sarah Tarbox from brother Valentine in the right way it may reach to fame there lies in the teacher a great responsibility in turning the infant minds the right way. I shall not be able to come home the 4th I dont think. I may come but it will be uncertain. Keith is in Mt Desert yet he has not been doing much I believe. he is not courting any one that I know of he did go to see a girl on Islboro once or twice but I think he does not know her name was Mary Bordman. I Keith and me think of opening a room in Elsworth after the 4th write often and tell me the news Tell Stephen it is no use for him to do any thing with Carroline for she can use up 4 just like him Give my respects to Father and tell Wilmot to keep his nose clean

From your Brother
