

R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1,
Confederate Veterans
Richmond, Va., March 1, 1881

An Appeal For Help

The necessity for relief to disabled Confederate Soldiers is growing more urgent every day. They have no government to support or provide for them, and must share the fate of paupers unless a Home is provided for them by private contributions, and Lee Camp have undertaken to establish such a Home.

They have appealed to their Comrade Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, who have responded with a noble willingness and fraternal sentiment, worthy of their heroic record. Still, the undertaking is large and the need for further aid is urgent.

We, therefore, appeal to the Banks and Bankers, Capitalists, Insurance and other Corporations, Manufacturers and Merchants, for such contributions in Cash or Merchandise as will be easily spared from their abundance and of great help in our necessities.

We refer to Hon. W. C. Carrington Mayor of Richmond, Virginia, or to any of our Banks, Bankers or other business people.

We will hold a Fair in this city on or about the 1st of May at the Armory. Let us at least have some contribution, which will be gratefully accepted and duly acknowledged by publication in our city papers.
