

The hair of General Washington I leave in the care of my sister Zilpah. I wish it may be preserved in our own family while it can be safe. Some years hence it may be thought invaluable at the Museum at ~~Bodoin~~ Bowdoin College; or if Maine is a separate state, and patriotism would fully estimate its worth, I had rather it would be preserved among its treasures.

The hair of General Washington I leave in the care of my sister Zilpah. I wish it may be preserved in our own family while it can be safe. Some years hence it may be thought invaluable at the Museum at Bodoin [crossed out] Bowdoin College; or if Maine is a separate state, and patriotism would fully estimate its worth, I had rather it would be preserved among its treasures.

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by the Maine Historical Society
(Local Code: Coll. S-1247)

Date: Circa 1802

Description: The following, undated note is in the hand of Eliza Wadsworth. It was given to the Maine Historical Society with the lock of George Washington's hair.