

Correction:

Pere Pole is the ^{18th Cent. *} English, ^{Corruption of the Indian}

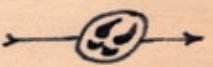

Piel Pol is the ^{1. Corruption of the French} Wabanaki.

Pierre Paul is the French.

Peter Paul is the meaning for them all. Peter Paul is a common Wabanaki (Abenaki) Indian name, even today, witness Mr. Peter L. Paul of the Malecite Reserve at Woodstock New Brunswick, Canada.

Richard McGaffney,
Graduate Fellow in History,
University of Maine
(alias Bounding Elk, Penobscot)
13 June, 1960 A.D.

* Inserts made by me,
13 June, 1960.
RmcGaffney

Correction:

18th cent.
Pere Pole is the ^ English corruption of the Indian
Piel Pol is the Wabanaki corruption of the French
Pierre Paul is the French
Peter Paul is the meaning for them all. Peter Paul is a common Wabanaki (Abenaki) Indian name, even today, witness Mr. Peter L. Paul of the Malecite Reserve at Woodstock, New Brunswick, Canada.

Richard McGaffney
Graduate fellow in History,
University of Maine
(alias Bounding Elk, Penobscot)
13 June, 1960 A.D

*Inserts made by me
13 June, 1960.
RmcGaffney

(art work)

Local Code: Coll. 61, Box 5, fl. 16, v.7

Date of Creation: June 13, 1960

Description: Historian Richard McGaffney's description of the name "Pere Pole".