

March 11
Biddeford Maine

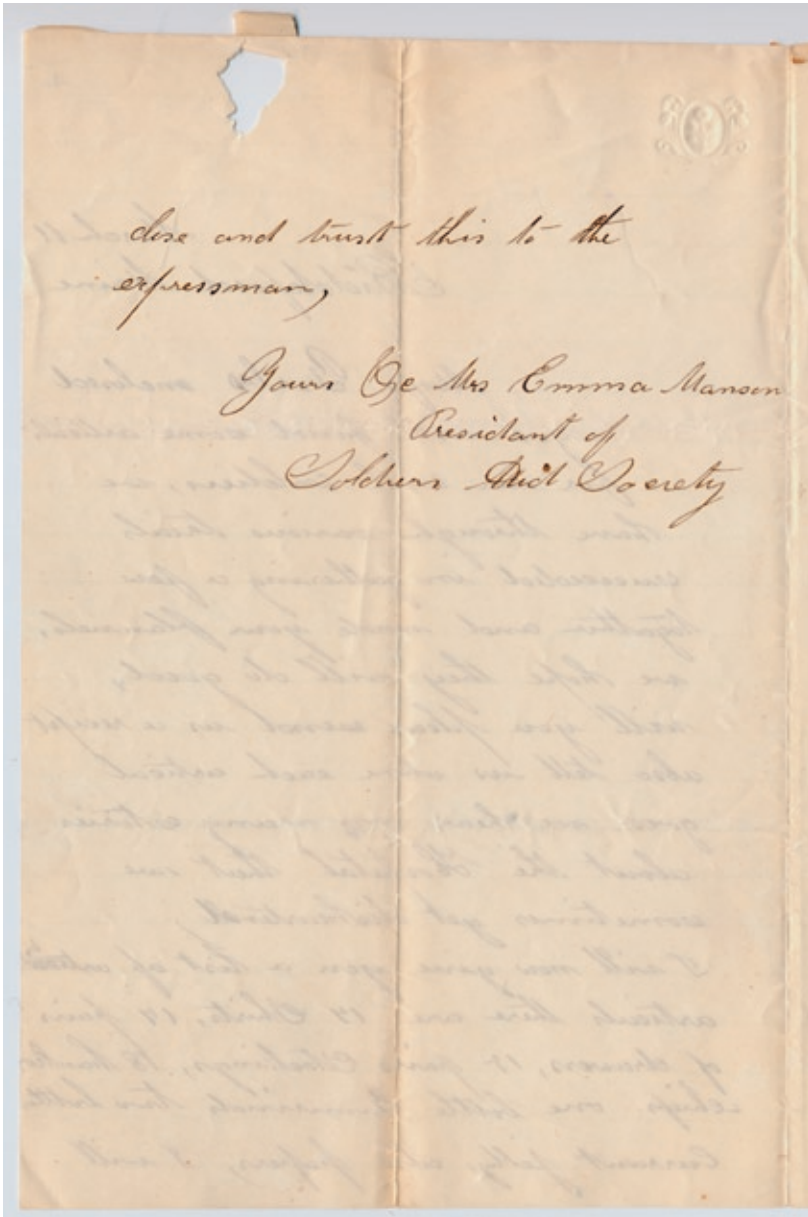

Miss Forbes enclosed you will find some articles for our sick soldiers, we have through various trials succeeded in gathering a few together and made your flannels, we hope they will do good, will you pleas send us a receipt also tell us where each artical goes. we hear so many stories about the Hospital that we sometimes get disheartened, I will now give you a list of articals there are 17 shirts, 17 pairs of drawers, 15 pairs stockings, 18 hankerchiefs, one bottle Gamrinds [?], two bottles currant jelly, also papers, I will

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by the Maine Historical Society

(Local code: Coll. 1035 Fl. 2)

Date: March 11, 1863

Description: Letter from Mrs. Emma Manson, President of the Soldiers Aid Society of Biddeford, to Ellen Forbes, a Civil War Nurse serving in Washington, D.C. The letter lists supplies sent to Ellen Forbes from the Society to aid the soldiers of Maine.

close and trust this to the expressman,

Yours &c Mrs Emma Manson
President of Soldiers Aid Society