

Dear Sir
Washington June 10 1850

Your letter of the 31st ult came duly to honor - My engagements are such that I can give you but a brief answer -

You will see by the daring in the Legislature that there is a union so far of whigs, free soil men & some Democrats, to present the election of a U.S. Senator - What will be the result remains to be seen - It is such a coalition as I did not expect to see any Democrat engaged in - after a caucus of our party had made its nomination - It is said your friend Mr Bradbury is one of the leading men in it - While you may desire his election, I trust you are not in favor of violating & breaking down all the [?]
of this party -

Respy Yours
H. Hamlin
