Dear Brother,
We are now under orders for Fernandina, Florida, where 'tis said our Regiment will Garrison. Our Regiment is small or <sup>we</sup> should have joined the Army of the Potomac. Col Plaisted succeeded after much solicitation with Gen. Hunter in obtaining an order to go to Fla.
He expects to gain some recruits when we get there, we are very near the consolidation point, which alarms the Col. for he and the Major would be mustered out and the Lt. Col. command the Battalion. I intend to keep cool and go where I am ordered tho' I would prefer active service to garrison duty. The '11th' has obtained

Description: Letter from Luther Lawrence to his brother, written in Beaufort, South Carolina.

have seen our Camp unite in pro-nouncing it the best they ever saw.
Our Tents are aligned every way, bunks all of one pattern, we have brick side-walks, large eating saloons to each Co. in short ours is the best Camp in the U.S. We have put it in order and have got to leave it - "sick is war". I have faith to believe that the change will be for the best.
One thing certain not we shall get rid of our Big. Commander who is a Copperhead and a Pennsyl-vanian, <sup>and</sup> consequently down on Maine boys. The weather is very warm here.
Warm days & cool nights is the way we have it. I bought a Panama Hat to day and <sup>(paid)</sup> $5. worth about $2 1/2 in Me. You will not direct to Fernandna till you hear from me again for we may not go after all.
Yours in haste
Luther Lawrence.
