Description: Letter from Thomas Lindsey to Abial Bishop any barns they let their cattle lay out door all winter there is some of the handsomest Forests of oak here that ever I saw. wood is worth six dollars a cord it in Georgetown it could beated down on the canal cheap the Ohio and Chesapeake Canal runs along here you know the great ^{Wash} Washington Aqueduct runs along side of the canal here the gate house of the Aqueduct is within a hundred rods of where we are encamped this is the place where the rebels throwed shells across here last winter we had a great many Picket men shot here last winter I have been over the river twice since we have been here the people here are all Secesh they are ignorant people they live in poor houses most every one owns a slave George is well we had one man die from Livermore his name was ^{Wm} Henry Kimball he was brother to the one that married Phoebe Manwell we have lost 4 men in our Co Elishar Ramsdell died in Washington with the small Pox our second Lieut was the means of his going to Washington Both of our Lieutenants have Resigned and gone home we have had two more appointed the first was our orderly Sergeant the second was from Co E We got up a petition requesting him to resign I think he will we have got 3 Sergeants and 3 Corporals from Leeds Sergeant Barker will get his discharge I think we have been paid one payment it was 22 dollars and ten cents I am afraid to send any money home the mail is so irregular Uncle our time is half out I would not advise any man to enlist there is no man that knows what we have to suffer that has not tried it we have a hard time I tell you I have not been sick a day yet I am as fat as a hog I weigh a hundred and sixty Geord weighs the same within a few ounces the Capt says we are the hardest boys he has got told aunt Dorcas that my shirts wear first rate you let our folks know that I am well tell Georges folks that he is well Frank is sick with the Reumatism George has had the jaundise but was not sick mutch he says that he will help you in haying next summer so you need not speak for anyone else tell Charles and Alura to write to me and I will try and answer their letters if they will write give my respects to all the neighbors it is getting late and I must close good day from your nephew
