

Camp near Aquia Creek, Nov 26/62

My Dear father and mother

You no doubt are anxious to hear from me as often as possible but you are not more anxious to hear from me, than I am to hear from you a letter from home cheers a fellow up out here among strangers. I am getting along first rate now my health is good and I feel first rate. Six days ago we went out to guard a pontoon train in, we came back to the regiment day before yesterday when we were within about ten

Camp near Aquia Creek, Nov 26/62

My Dear father and mother

You no doubt are anxious to hear from me as often as possible but you are not more anxious to hear from me, than I am to hear from you a letter from home cheers a fellow up out here among strangers. I am getting along first rate now my health is good and I feel first rate. Six days ago we went out to guard a pontoon train in, we came back to the regiment day before yesterday when we were within about ten

Contributed to Maine Memory Network by Maine Historical Society
MMN # 97568

Date: Nov. 26, 1862

Description: Pvt. John Sheahan on importance of letters miles of our camp. we were passing through an encampment and I heard some one side of the road say "rein up that horse"

"rein up that horse". I looked round and who do you suppose I saw there was Bill fast enough I fell out of the ranks and talked with him for a minute and only a minute I should like to have stayed with him much longer but I could not for we had to march quite fast that made three times that I have seen him since I have been out here. While we were in the rebel camps we had gay times. one night I was on picket near a house so when it began to grow light I drove my horse up to the

miles of our camp. we were
passing through an encampment
and I heard some one side of
the road say "rein up that horse"
"rein up that horse" I looked
round and who do you suppose
I saw there was Bill fast
enough I fell out of the ranks
and talked with him for a
minute and only a minute I
should like to have stayed with
him much longer but I could not
for we had to march quite fast
that made three times that I
have seen him since I have
been out here. While we were
in the rebel camps we had
gay times. one night I was
on picket near a house so
when it began to grow light
I drove my horse up to the

gate a tied him I saw a hen and I was bound to have her, so I drew my sabre and put after her intending when I came up with her to take off her head while I was after her I run against a little white house set up on four legs I opened the door it was a dary that was enough I took all the butter there was in it and all the cream there was nearly two quarts of it in a tin kettle I took kettle and all. if I had had my canteen I would have had some milk but I left it in camp when I ate the butter it made me think of home, but where we are now a fellow has a poor chance to get anything for

gate a tied him I saw a hen
and I was bound to have her, so I drew my sabre and put after
her intending when I came up
with her to take off her head
while I was after her I run
against a little white house
set up on four legs I opened
the door it was a dary that
was enough I took all the butter
there was in it and all the
cream there was nearly two
quarts of it in a tin kettle I
took kettle and all if I had my canteen I would have had some milk but I
left it in camp when I ate
the butter it made me think
of home. but where we are
now a fellow has a poor
chance to get anything for

every house is guarded
I think if they would take the guards of from the houses and put them in the ranks we would not lose quite so many battles, the roads are dreadful muddy and we had a heavy rain last night
which must have made them much muddier I will close now hoping to hear from you soon and
often I gave Bill a letter to send you I suppose you have got it by this
time

John P Sheahan

save all my letters dont lose one

every house is guarded
I think if they would take
the guards of from the houses
and put them in the ranks
we would not lose quite
so many battles. the roads
are dreadful muddy and we
had a heavy rain last night
which must have made
them much muddier I will
close now hoping to hear
from you soon and
often I gave Bill a letter
to send you I suppose
you have got it by this
time

John P Sheahan

save all my letters dont lose one