Description: Pvt. John Sheahan on 'honorable peace' am perfectly willing to endure all the hardships of camp life if I can only have the assurance that I have helped to secure an honorable peace.

The sun has come out and yesterday's snow has all disappeared, and the ground is fast drying up. When I look around and see every thing so pleasant as they are now I think of the day I left home the sun was shining brightly and every thing was gay, today is just such a day as that was and it makes me homesick when I think of it. But it is all for the best. The war must end and then I will come home again safe and sound I know this, and then I can hold up my head and say that I have done my duty. — Tell William to bring out a large bottle of ink, say a bottle that will hold nearly a cup full, I have great trouble to get ink.

Miss Hill sent me a splendid Army Writing case by express and also a lot of paper like this and a lot of stamps. She is a true friend she says anything that I want let her know it and she will send it to me.
