

Boston Septbr 12_ 1889.

Miss Mary Fellows
Skowhegan Maine.

I recieved yours estimate Aug. 9 and am glad to hear that the rest you had was of good success for your healthy.
Will you kindly take notice that we got a nice babe at August 2^d (a boy) and that M^{rs} Kneisel and I ar very well.

I hear with pleasure that you would like to begin work again and therefore I would like to see you here again.
Your room you occupied is ready for you and you ar allways welcome.

Description: Musician Franz Kneisel wrote to Mary Elise Fellows of Skowhegan, who was one of his violin students and who had roomed in his house during part of her musical studies in Boston.

With great pleasure I received a letter from Mrs fellows your mamma and I am sorry not to have ben able to answer them, because I had in this time very much to do

My relations and Mrs Kneisel send you their best compliments and best wishes for yourself.

Very sincerely yours

Franz Kneisel
