

“It is a powerful and exciting tool for keeping our state’s history alive and interesting both now and for the future.” -Ann Siekman, Norway Historical Society

“Fabulous digital library...It’s fun to do a little time traveling!” -Nancy Montgomery, Montgomery Design, Portland

“The MMN project has helped spur donations because of the promise of shared accessibility.” -Gaye Wagner, Westport Historical Society

“The Maine Memory Network allowed my students to do so much more than learn facts and dates. They collaborated with an organization in the community and forever preserved a number of images from the past. It gathered multiple generations around a common goal.” -Kurt Rowley, Teacher at Dirigo High School, Dixfield

“Training and support provided by everyone at MMN was phenomenal.” -David O. Smith, Technical Services Librarian/Archivist, Kennebec Valley Community College

“I was absorbed by your wonderful site. Very professional and fascinating. Well done.” - Jac, MMN Visitor
